

Basic Entities (Types/Periods/Timespans/Places)

Hierarchies

Event E5

Linked with: P117 occurs during

Domain: E5, E6, E8, E12

Range: E5, E6, E8, E12

Actor E21

Linked with: P107 has current or former member

Domain: E74, E40

Range: E21, E74, E40

Types

Entries with * are obligatory and cannot be altered. Others are facultative examples and are editable/extendable

Types E55 are linked with E55 via P127 (has broader term)

Actor Function

Definitions of an actor's function within a group or legal body. An actor can for example be member of a legal body and this membership is defined by a certain function/role during a certain period of time. E.g. Actor "Charlemagne" is member of the legal body "Frankish Reign" from 768-814 in the function of "King" and he is member of the legal body "Roman Empire" from 800 to 814 in the function "Emperor".

Bishop

Abbot

Pope

King

Emperor

Count

Duke

References

Image

Text

Source

Types for Sources

Charter

Testament

Letter

Contract

Bibliography Item

Definitions for the type of bibliographic items like "articles", "books", "proceedings" etc.

Article

Book

Inbook

Mastersthesis

Phdthesis
unpublished

Edition

Definitions for the type of Source Editions like "Charter Edition" etc.

Charter Edition
Letter Edition
Chronicle Edition
...

Linguistic object classification*

Source Content*
Source Original Text*
Source Translation*
Comment*

Information Carrier

Categories for the types of information carriers. E.g. to determine if the physical manifestation of a medieval charter is an original, a later copy etc.

Original Document
Copy of Document

Actor Actor Relation

Definitions of relationships between one actor and another. These relationships can be directional (e.g. parent of/child of: actor A is the father of actor B while actor B is the son of actor A) or be the same in both directions (e.g. friend of: actor A is friend of actor B and vice versa actor B is friend of actor A) _

Kindredship
  Parent of (Child of)
Social Friend of Enemy of Mentor of (Student of) Political Ally of Leader of (Retinue of) Economical
  Provider of (Customer of)

Date value type

Exact date value
From date value
To date value

Localisation Quality

Exact position
Near to a known position
Within a known area

Gender

Categories for persons' gender

Female
Male

Place

Types for Places sites-example

- Boundary Mark
- Burial Site
- Economic Site
- Infrastructure
- Military Facility
- Ritual Site
- Settlement
- Topographical Entity

Event Types

Types of events

- Change of Property
  - Donation
  - Sale
  - Exchange
- Conflict
  - Battle
  - Raid

Involvement

Categories to define the involvement of an actor within an event. E.g. "Napoleon" participated in the event "Invasion of Russia" as "Commander"

- Creator
- Sponsor
- Victim
- Offender

Places (World)

E53 linked via P89 "falls within/contains" to E53 - e.g. Austria contains Wien/Wien falls within Austria

Administrative Units

- Austria
  - Wien
  - Kärnten
  - Niederösterreich
  - Oberösterreich
  - Salzburg
  - Tirol
  - Steiermark
  - Vorarlberg
  - Burgenland
- Germany
- Italy
- Czech Republic
- Slovakia
- Slovenia

Types for Places

E55 entities (but listed here as they belong to places) used to determine the type of place e.g. country, province, district... Uses national terms due to each country's different systems

- Country
- Bundesland
- Bezirk

Gemeinde
Katastralgemeinde
Regierungsbezirk
Landkreis
Gemarkung
Regioni
Comune
Province

Historical Place

E53 entities. These Places are for example historical regions like the "Medieval Kingdom of Serbia" or the early medieval "Duchy of Bavaria".

Historical Places
Carantania
Marcha Orientalis
Comitatus Iauntal
Kingdom of Serbia